Baldwin Hall--Nucleus of Campus Activity

The diversity of Baldwin Hall serves the student body in many ways.

Modern, glass and brick, situated among the flowers on the northeast corner of the campus--this is Baldwin Hall. It hasn't always been so. The image has changed with the passing of time from its first erection in 1873 to our modern conception with the addition of new Baldwin Auditorium in 1959.

In the beginning, Baldwin Hall occupied a center position on the campus--serving as a center of student activities until 1924 when it burned to the ground. The rubble was cleared away and the site remained empty with the cellar excavation evidence of its original existence.

The need for a replacement was answered in 1938 and new Baldwin Hall was built on Marion street. The burned cavity of the earlier building was converted into a scenic sunken garden.

Baldwin Hall as it now stands is a three-story brick building which houses administrative offices, the Language and Literature, the Fine Arts, and the Business Education departments.

During the day the offices buzz in the process of keeping tabs on the enrollment. Students stream through the hall going from class to class--from the language laboratory to the crafts room. At night organizations move in for meetings. The new 1400-seat auditorium is the scene of lyceum programs, assemblies, dramatic presentations, and musical concerts. Jose Greco, visiting Spanish dancer remarked, "The facilities for creative productions here are excellent."

Baldwin Hall does a heroic job accommodating the influx of activity. The main bulletin boards are located here, attesting the fact that almost all students enter its doors. The building will continue to absorb the increase in enrollment--adjusting to an 11-hour-a-day class schedule, brass quartets adjacent to French readings, and limited wall space for art exhibits--until its complement rises on the horizon.

Although peaceful and serene externally, Baldwin Hall, inside its doors, is a delicate, precision administrative organization.

Mayor Burdman speaks at assembly.

Good grooming week assembly presented a fashion show featuring MSTC coeds.

Assembly is an education in its own right. It is more than a supplement. Every Wednesday morning the doors of the plush auditorium open and observers settle into velvet contour chairs--lost in the programs which range from soul-searching sermons during Religious Emphasis Week, to soft shoe dances by our own smoothies, the K-Dettes.

Top-level assemblies command attention of Freshmen

Trained K-Dettes expertly entertain in assembly.

Lyceums feature imported and local talent

No need to associate provincialism with MSTC when students, faculty, and townspeople opened their minds, time, and pocketbooks to traveling lyceum programs. We, of Sleepy Hollow, emerged from the six programs wide-eyed with impressions of the outside world. Castanet sales skyrocketed with José Greco's flamenco; Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms sweat shirts blossomed after the Kansas City Symphony's concert, and Mark Twain revisited his old stomping grounds through Hal Holbrook.

Seated: Elmer F. Gieselman, Macon; P. M. Marr, Milan, president; Edward E. Swain Sr., Kirkville; J Andy Zenge, Jr., Canton; Henry M. Boucher, Memphis; Ed Jayne, Kirkville.

Board of Regents-- Master Planners

Progress in our time is seldom the outgrowth of chance. More often it is achieved through the efforts of many people working together--a prime example being our Board of Regents, Mr. Hubert Wheeler, State Commissioner of Education since 1947, and our Administrative staff. The work of the Board is perpetuating and ever increasing with the growth and development of the college.

Everything that MSTC is today represents the realization of past planning. The six-member Board appointed by the Governor, with the approval of the State Senate, for a term of six years, has charge of the policies, operation and maintenance of the college.

Under President Ryle's twenty-five years of administration

For twenty-five years Walter H. Ryle has served as our college president—from the time he took office in 1937. We four-year students cannot possibly imagine the progress made on campus during this span. We would be mightily impressed if we could visualize the campus twenty-five years ago—a sandlot with only Kirk, Laughlin and the library buildings. Since then all other buildings comprising MSTC have been added. In addition, the grounds abound with flowers year-around making this campus the most beautiful in the state.

In other ways the college has grown physically. The library has increased during the presidency of Dr. Ryle with the addition of the Glenn Frank and the Violette-McClure libraries. He also arranged for the addition of the Bureau of Visual Education, the Reading Clinic, the Remedial Speech Clinic, and the Division of Extension and Correspondence Teaching.

Also the campus has grown scholastically. With the help of President Ryle candidates were able to receive a Master's degree in 1947—at that time only in the fields of music, social science, business education and education. In 1948 the Bachelor of Science degree was granted.

An institution must also grow spiritually and President Ryle has led it along this path. He has always insisted upon the continuance of the Baldwin philosophy that thorough scholastic training lies at the foundation of the teacher's education.

Anyone who considers the influence of President Walter H. Ryle will agree with Dr. J. W. Jones, of Northwest Missouri State College, who said at the twenty-fifth anniversary banquet, "He is a dedicated worker. He approaches all problems in the light of the facts and what bearing the solution to the problem will have on the development of the best interests of the State Teachers College."

Students in need of help will always find Dean Rieger behind his desk, ready to advise and sympathize.

Dean Rieger - the student's friend

"College Dean"-- that authoritative title--is loaded with connotations of stern countenance, ultimatums, and final signatures. Our dean, Dr. Wray M. Rieger, injects one important trait into this definition-- humanism. Anyone who has dealt with him, from the office help--to whom he has dispensed coffee in the Snack Shop, to the poor student with no honor points, comes to appreciate and share his deep appreciation for his co-workers.

On paper his qualifications are abundant. He has B.S., M.A.A., and Ph.D. degrees from the Teachers College, the University of Missouri, University of Missouri, University of Chicago, and the University of Southern California respectfully. Fourteen years out of thirty-three spent as an instructor at this institution were in the position of Head of the Science and Mathematics Division.

Impossible to represent in print is the good impression he makes as second-in-command of the college. We are proud to have him represent us in dealing with college visitors, from the assembly speakers whom he meets at the airport, to the questioning backers on Parents Day.

Registration Week wanes hectic

I hate to tell you this but you're in the wrong line!

If enrollment lines seemed endless, it was because more than 10,000 students passed through them this year. Fall quarter had the highest enrollment with 3,547 students. Adair county provided the most followed by St. Louis and Macon counties. Natives of 27 states entered the gates. The majority came from Iowa and Illinois. New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York provided the eastern bloc.

Foreign students were attracted by the high standards and 32 countries sent scholars—from Thailand to Iceland. Iran had the largest number of representatives with Korea and Hong Kong second.

"Enrollment is so-o-o easy with these new, shorter forms," exclaims Jo Weekly to Ann Todd.

Cheer up, ladies and gentlemen, this is only the beginning.

An expert in evaluating the sorority rush season was Katrin Arnadottir, Panhellenic scholarship recipient from Iceland, who attended every morning, afternoon, and evening rush party consecutively. She and 82 expectant rushees ran the gauntlet from imprisonment in "Alpha Traz" to fish 'n' poi in DZ's "Luau". Escorts hurried them from balmy breezes in Sig Kapp-created South Seas, to high fashion in Tri Sig "Diorland". Katrin commented "Man! What a whirl!"-- in highly "UnIcelandic" fashion.

During "Silent Sunday" girls paused to consider true loyalties. On the following day elated members of the four sororities welcomed rushees into a pivotal world of pledgehood.

Smokers opened rush season this year as new students were familiarized with ideals of each organization. Confusion mounted as collegians tried to decide which fraternity men they wanted to call their brothers.

Fraternity dances began the final week of rush season. After chanting with the Phi Sigs at their L'Apache, returning to the old west with the Sig Taus at their 49er's, going university style with the AKL's, and spending a night in Troy with the Teke Trojans the rushee was left two days to make up his mind.

"It is with greatest pleasure....."

Cheerful about your height, aren't you, Joe Downs?

Girls finally assumed the role that they had long been accused of--that of assuming the initiative--when TWIRP Week rolled around. Because of vivid descriptions by a certain Al Capp, boys were warned of the impending danger.

That week in which The Woman Is Required to Pay, was at times confusing as each gender assumed new roles. Girls opened doors, arranged dates, and paid bills. The final accumulation of the week's reversal of the classic system was the TWIRP Week dance. Entrance was ½ cent per inch of each boy's height.

When TWIRP Week was declared a success, critics neglected to consider the brave efforts of dateless boys who nervously laughed about their numbers which were never called.

With four consecutive MIAA all-sports championships safely tucked away, the mighty Bulldogs of Missouri State Teachers College were hoping to add the fifth to the list. Southeast State of Cape Girardeau provided the chief thorn in the sides of Kirksville athletes. The Indians escaped with the league football title in the fall before slipping by the Bulldogs twice on the basketball floor during the cage season.

Kirksville's track men still maintained their superiority over conference rivals in the spring by winning their fifth straight indoor championship. The purple-and-white more than held their own in cross-country, tennis and golf to enhance the Bulldogs' chances for another all-sports title. The athletic program at MSTC is rounded out with a highly-organized, well-supervised intramural program, directed by Ralph Pink.

The re-construction of Stokes Stadium lent added enthusiasm to the sports program at MSTC during the past year. But whether it be the thrill of a last-minute touchdown pass or the tense excitement of a basketball game, the fighting Bulldog spirit is one of which each student may be proud.

Northern Illinois Ends Kirksville Win Streak

KIRKSVILLE 62 - WAYNE STATE 6. Kirksville's 1962 football team celebrated the re-dedication of Stokes Stadium by soundly defeating Wayne State in the season's opener. Speedy halfback Mike Richardson served notice of what was to come later in the campaign by galloping 75 and 80 yards for Kirksville touchdowns. All-star quarterback Jack Ball hit Bill Sanders for a pair of touchdown passes while completing ten aerials. MIAA scoring champ Joe Minton started the year with 18 tallies on a half-dozen PAT's along with a pair of paydirt plunges.

KIRKSVILLE 39 - WASHBURN 0. Although the Bulldogs turned in an impressive victory in their second outing of the season, it was a costly win as passing ace Jack Ball suffered a compound leg fracture to put him out of action for the season. Three Ichobods hit Ball on the 38th play of the game to end his collegiate career. Joe Minton scored 15 more points while Mike Richardson electrified the home crowd for the second week in a row by carrying a punt 83 yards to paydirt. The 'Dogs racked up 511 yards while Washburn never offered a serious threat.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS 37 - KIRKSVILLE 8. The absence of Jack Ball was sorely felt as Kirksville's 8-game winning streak came to a halt at Macomb. The Huskies' all-American passer George Bork led Northern to a 13-0 halftime lead before the hosts increased their lead after intermission. Bobby Watts' short plunge accounted for the lone Kirksville tally as the Bulldogs suffered only their third loss in three years.

The loss of the injured Jack Ball hindered Kirksville's title hopes.

Bulldogs Smoothers Pittsburg's National Champs

KIRKSVILLE 34 - PITTSBURG STATE 12. A Homecoming crowd of 4,500 saw Kirksville halfback Mike Richardson explode against Pittsburg State and send them reeling to their first loss in 19 games. Richardson scampered for 296 yards in 20 carries as the Bulldogs held a surprising 22-0 half-time advantage. The visitors, ranked No. 2 nationally, revived temporarily in the third period by scoring a pair of T.D.'s. But the 'Dogs came back with two of their own to send the badly-clawed Gorillas home in defeat.

KIRKSVILLE 42 - WARRENSBURG 7. Central State's Mules became the Bulldogs' fourth victim of the year as Kirksville's burly line, led by all-American Dave Grant, held the losers to -26 yards rushing. T. J. Jackson, another speedy halfback, also crossed paydirt twice. The Bulldogs were penalized almost 200 yards in a contest filled with mistakes.

KIRKSVILLE 40 - ROLLA 0. A brilliant first half offensive performance let Kirksville's high-geared eleven coast to their second MIAA triumph at Rolla. The well-balanced attack produced two tallies through the air and three on the ground as the Bulldogs led, 33-0, at intermission. The reserves took over for the 'Dogs in the second half but the Miners never did penetrate the Kirksville end zone.

Cape Upset Lets Indians Capture MIAA Crown

CAPE GIRARDEAU 13 - KIRKSVILLE 6. A Kirksville fumble on the Cape two yard line early in the game proved to be the turning point of the 1962 MIAA football race as the Indians squeezed by the Bulldogs. The only two passes Cape quarterback threw all day went for touchdowns as Lyman Brown caught both for 24 and 25 yard tallies. Joe Minton tallied Kirksville's only TD in the second period.

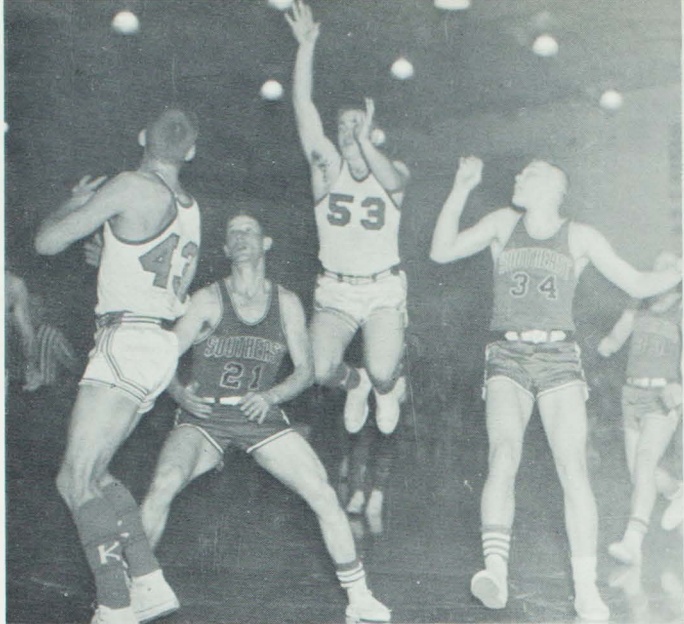

KIRKSVILLE 43 - MARYVILLE 7. The most decisive Bulldog victory over Maryville in 35 years enabled the Kirksville gridders to keep the famed hickory stick for the seventh straight year. Shane Cavanah tossed three touchdown passes in helping the Bulldogs take a 28-0 halftime lead. An intercepted fumble in the second period let the Bearcats score their only TD.

KIRKSVILLE 60 - SPRINGFIELD 20. The final game of the season saw the Bulldogs turn in their fine offensive performance of the season. Halfback Mike Richardson gained 303 yards as he cracked the school rushing mark for freshman with 1036. Joe Minton added 18 points to his league-leading scoring mark and finished with 92 tallies. A 95-yard return of the second half kick-off provided SMS with their top thrill of the day.

Bulldogs Promising in Early Season Games

Although only five returning lettermen greeted Coach Boyd King last fall, prospects looked bright with the addition of three promising transfer students and a pair of talented freshmen. Pre-season experts picked the Kirkville five to repeat their fourth place MIAA finish of 1962. But seven Bulldog wins in their first nine starts showed their conference counterparts they were bidding for a share of the MIAA title.

Four Bulldogs hit in double figures as Kirkville's cagers downed IOWA WESLEYAN 91-58 to open the season. Freshman Les Selvage pumped in 23 points in his collegiate debut while Jerry Germain with 17 and Gene Lee with 15 helped claw the Tigers. MacMURRAY

COLLEGE was the Bulldogs' second victim as Selvage again led the Kirkville bucket brigade in the 65-59 triumph. Wayne Clinton also played a starring role, sinking 13 tallies.

WESTERN ILLINOIS put the clamps on the Kirkville scoring machine as the Leathernecks handed the MSTC cagers their initial defeat 67-58. The play of David Taylor was the lone bright spot for the 'Dogs as Coleman Carrodine & Co. held Bulldog hot-shot Les Selvage to eight points. A 62-53 decision over ROCKHURST put Coach King's crew back on the victory trail. Balanced Bulldog scoring broke the Hawks' 11-game victory string and boosted the Bulldogs' season record to 3-1.

Reed Chosen to MIAA Tournament Team

John Reed

Kirkville continued their dominance over the QUINCY HAWKS by outscoring the visitors 71-66. Quincy has never won on the Bulldogs' home court in the 44-year history. The rebounding efforts of John "Moby Dick" Reed highlighted the MSTC win while guards Les Salvage and Jerry Germain led the Bulldog scorers. A 65-51 triumph over OMAHA provided the 'Dogs with a warm-up contest before the MIAA tourney over the Christmas vacation. It was the fifth win in six contests for the surging Bulldogs.

WARRENSBURG'S Gordon McFarland paced the Mules to a 82-78 come-from-behind triumph over the Kirkville five in the opening round of the conference tourney. But the Purple and White cagers bounced back the following night by whipping TARKIO 85-60 as four men scored in double figures. John Reed shoved 20 tallies through the hoop but had plenty of help from Bob Simpson with 17, Les Salvage with 15 and Wayne Clinton with 14. Clutch free throw shooting let the 'Dogs slip by WILLIAM JEWELL 72-70 in an overtime. Reed again led all scorers and was rewarded for his fine tournament play with a berth on the all-tourney team.

The Bulldogs opened the conference season with a 72-49 triumph over SPRINGFIELD'S Bears. Jerry Germain led the winning attack with 17 points while outstanding rebounding by John "Moby Dick" Reed and Gene Lee aided the winning effort. Germain paced the 'Dogs to their second straight MIAA victory, a 59-53 win at MARYVILLE.

With a 2-0 league mark, the Bulldogs traveled to CAPE GIRARDEAU to decide possession of first place. The Indians overcame an 8-point deficit to win 76-70. Bill Giessing's 23 points led the way for Cape while Les Selvage popped in 20 for Kirksville.

Norm Schuchman's 35-point outburst wasn't enough for ROLLA as the 'Dogs outscored the Miners 87-75 for their third MIAA victory. Selvage had 24 to pace Kirksville.

Bulldogs Drop Heart-breaker to Cape

It was sweet revenge for Kirksville's hot-shooting quintet as they reversed an earlier decision with WESTERN ILLINOIS by burying the Leathernecks 91-69. A 41% shooting performance enabled the 'Dogs to collect their eleventh win of the year. Jerry Germain's 24 points offset the 27 made by Western star Coleman Carrodine while John Reed added 17 for the winners. CAPE GIRARDEAU'S talented five wrapped up the league title three nights later by slipping past the Bulldogs 55-52 in one of the most exciting and suspensful games ever played on the Pershing Building floor. It took the Indians an overtime session to win their fifteenth game of the year without a defeat.

The Bulldogs pulled into a second place league tie by whipping WARRENSBURG 72-58 as Les Selvage pumped in 33 points. The Mules had defeated Kirksville earlier in the MIAA tournament. WILLIAM PENN provided no test for the powerful Bulldogs as the MSTC five trounced the Statesmen 87-57 in a non-league encounter. Coach King used his reserves for more than half the contest as the 'Dogs held a 46-24 lead at intermission.

Cagers End Season With 17-6 Record

With the conference championship almost an impossibility, the Bulldogs racked up three straight MIAA triumphs by downing SPRINGFIELD, WARRENSBURG and ROLLA. Les Selvage's 40 points in the Warrensburg game broke the school single game scoring mark formerly held by Larry Swift. Selvage and Jerry Germain combined for 60 points in the 'Dogs 101-87 rout of the Miners.

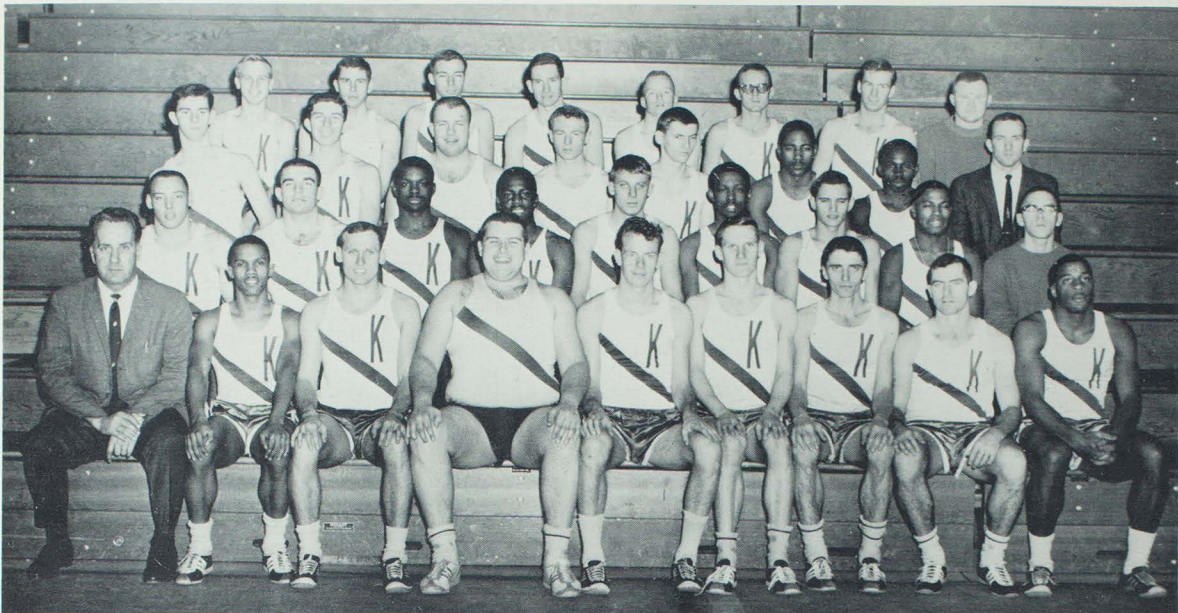

ROCKHURST slipped past the MSTC crew 83-80 before the 'Dogs dropped their last two games of the year. A revengeful MARYVILLE five took the Bulldogs' measure 71-68 in the losers' worst performance of the season. QUINCY avenged an earlier defeat a few nights later 59-55 as Kirksville's campaign came to an end on a sour note.

Freshman flash Les Selvage was the only Bulldog to be mentioned on the all-conference selections as the high-scoring guard was named to the first team. Forwards Gene Lee and John "Moby Dick" Reed barely missed second team positions.

Cindermen Win Fifth Straight Indoor Title

Track mentor Ken Gardner

Coach Ken Gardner's Bulldog trackmen once again dominated their MIAA counterparts as they captured their fifth consecutive conference indoor championship in Columbia. Stars were a dime a dozen as the MSTC cindermen ran, jumped, leaped and heaved their way into the MIAA throneroom again.

Distance man Ed Schneider carried home two blue ribbons by taking firsts in both the 880 and mile runs, setting a meet record in the mile. Jim Weigand and Chuck Taylor put their names on the MIAA record list by sharing the 440 yard standard. Weight man Dale Collier was another Bulldog record setter.

The man largely responsible for the overwhelming success of MSTC's track team is Coach Gardner. Bulldog cindermen have smothered opponents for five years, while winning national recognition.

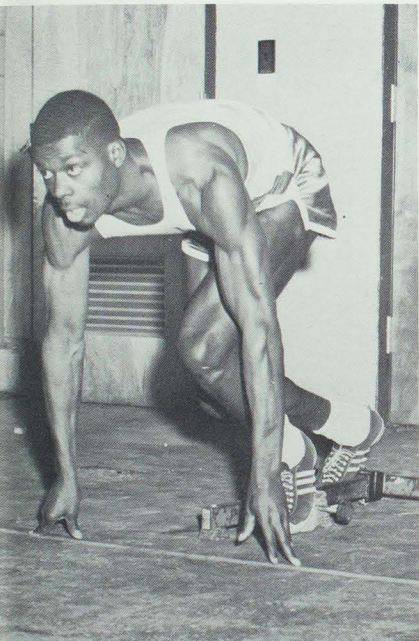

High jumper, Norman Taylor, successfully clears the bar at the University of Missouri meet.

Bob Lambert displays why he is ranked as one of the top broad jumpers in the conference.

Pole vaulting specialist Rob McAlpine scores for the Bulldogs in an indoor meet.

Utilizing every skilled muscle, sophomore Norm Taylor brings home another blue ribbon.

Schneider Leads Harriers to MIAA Title

Bulldog Harriers ran away with the MIAA cross-country championship for the third consecutive year as sophomore star Ed Schneider set a new individual league record. Schneider outlasted Warrensburg's Bill Silverburg for the loop title while Bulldog runner Jim Shepard finished fourth. Five of the top seven runners were from MSTC as Floyd Waddle, John North and Steve Thompson were in the next three places. Schneider toured the 3.86 mile course in 19:38.8 minutes to top the old mark by almost 48 seconds.

Coach George Herman's troupe opened the season with five dual meet victories before the University of Missouri squad handed the Bulldogs their first loss in 15 meets in over two years. Two more wins ended the harriers' dual activity before they successfully defended their MIAA crown. A seventh place finish in the NCAA meet closed the 'Dogs campaign, one of the most fruitful in many years. Schneider was fifth in the national meet while Waddle in thirteenth place was the next best Bulldog runner.

Four Lettermen Bolster Tennis Hopes

The return of four letterwinners from the 1962 squad and the addition of several promising newcomers justified Coach Ralph Pink's suspicion that the Bulldog netmen would rank among the best in the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Also posing as serious threats along the Bulldogs' road to success included such rivals as the University of Missouri.

Veteran Mike Cheval was on his way toward his fourth tennis letter, the first of its kind in the school's history. Frank Gantt, Glenn Robertson and Lars Harris were also hoping to repeat as lettermen. Jerry Kill and freshman Dennis Mueller were being counted heavily upon to add to the laurels of Coach Pink's troupe.

Other aspiring netmen were Rich Topping, Mark Hodder, Ed Marsh, Ron Thomas, Harv Mueller and Hank Kauffman.

Glenn Robertson and Mike Cheval congratulate each other after an intra-squad match.

MSTC Golfers Shoot For League Title

With their aim focused on the MIAA championship, Coach Bill Richerson's golf team was hoping to improve upon an 8-2 season in 1962. But foes such as Western Illinois, St. Louis University and Drake University proved stiff competition for the linkmen.

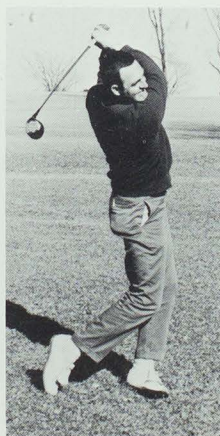

Jerry Kelley, Charles Allen, Larry Martindale and Bill Branscom formed the nucleus of the squad as lettermen while transfer Terry Sheesley was being heavily counted upon. Sheesley finished fourth in the NAIA matches while at New Mexico State.

Expanding Intramural Program Reaches New Heights

Intramurals enjoyed another prosperous year as the number of male student participants reached an all-time peak. Director Ralph Pink's expanded program attracted what seemed to be almost the entire male campus population with activities ranging from fleetball to horse shoes.

Fleetball was the first sport on the intramural agenda as the Fleetwings outlasted the rest of the field to gain championship honors. Phi Sigma Epsilon pulled the Mac's through the water-filled trench to take the fall Tug-of-War crown.

Rich Mantione's second consecutive Turkey Day victory run climaxed the fall activities as he toured the 1.7 mile course in 9:36.4. Fifteen ambitious college men finished the campus run in less than 11.5 minutes to score points for their respective organizations.

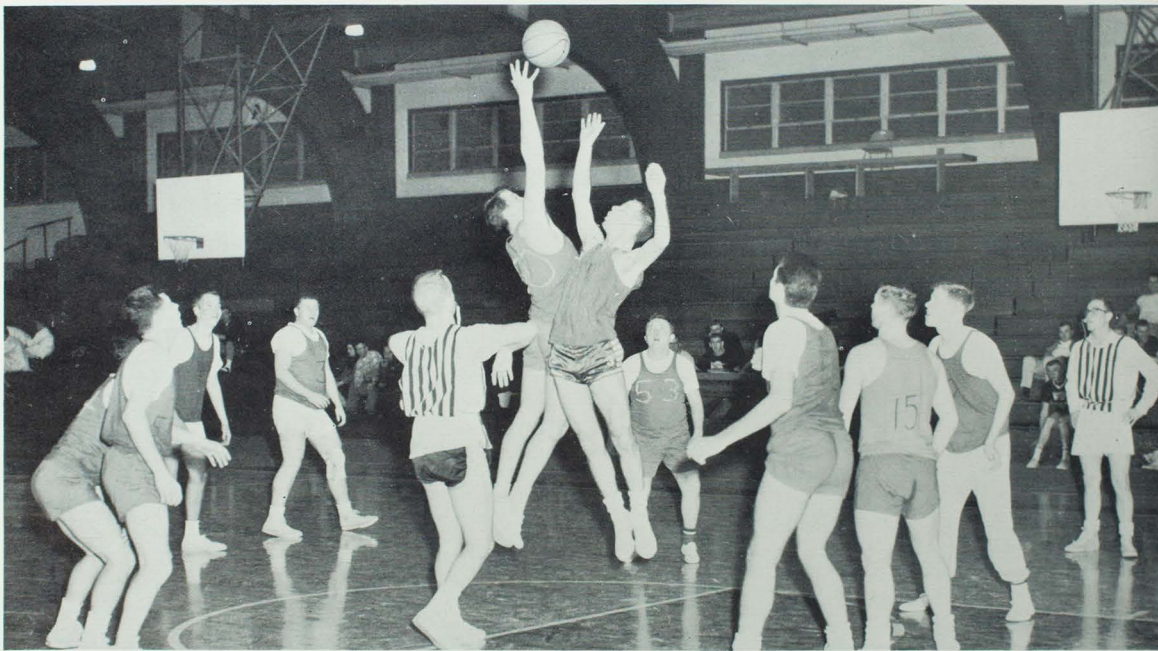

The aging but ever-spry Faculty won the volleyball championship for the third year in a row while Hiroshi Okano dazzled all opponents to capture his second straight table tennis crown. Badminton players and free throw shooters again turned out en masse in the other individual winter contests.

Pershing Building became the hub of intramural activity as basketball moved into the limelight. Seventy teams in fourteen leagues battled for berths in the all-school playoffs as 156 games were played on the Pershing hardwoods. Wrestling was added to the program this year as 75 men weighed in for the ten weight classes.

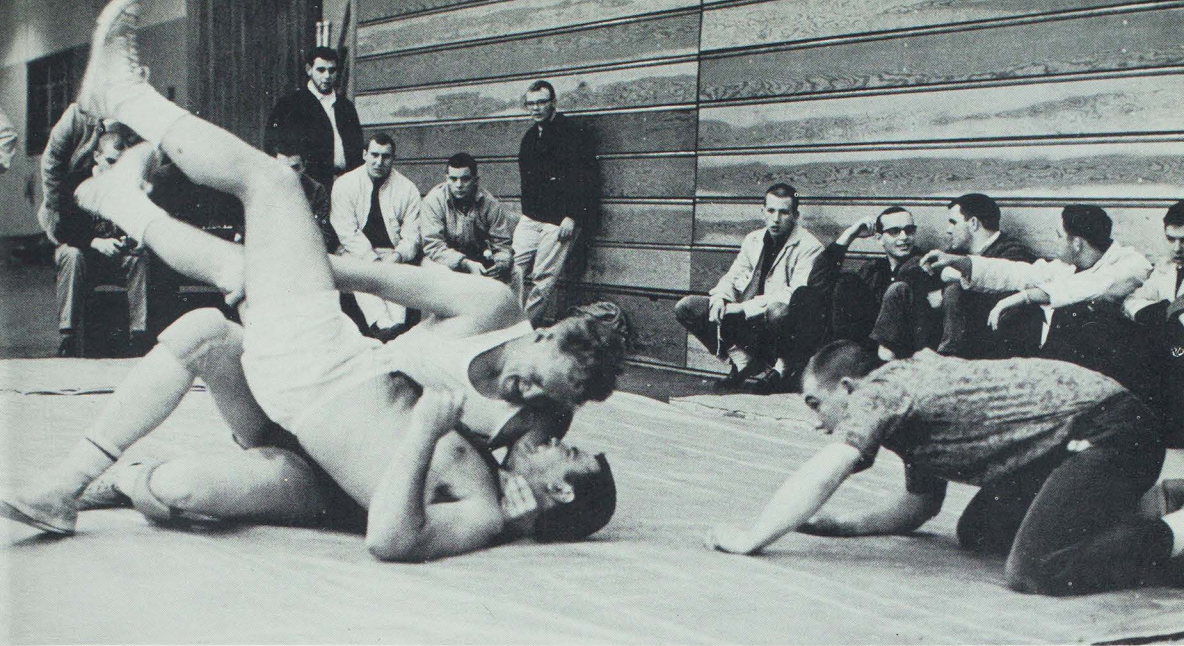

Warm spring weather saw horse shoes and softball take over as the top attraction. The spring Tug-of-War again lured a multitude of spectators, thankful that they did not enter as they watched contestants unwillingly receive their muddy spring baths.

The annual track and field meet marked the end of the intramural season. Over-indulging athletes, who had forgotten how long it had been since they were high school stars, strained their aching muscles in an effort to add points for their teams in quest for the all-school intramural sports championship.

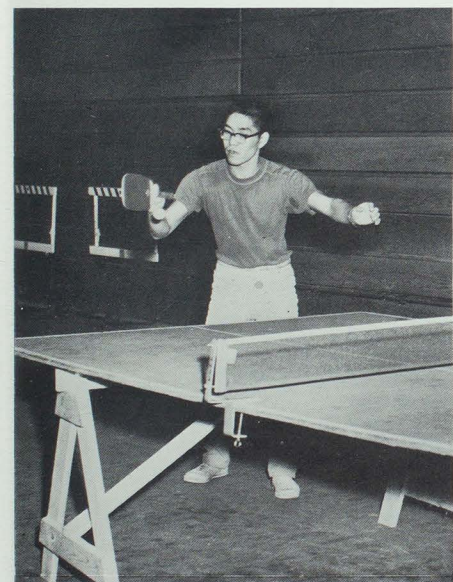

Basketball was again the top sport as over 700 students participated in this intramural activity.

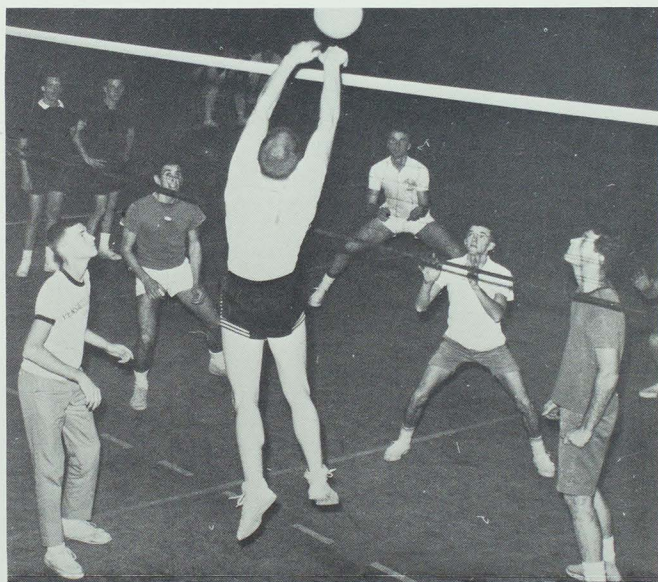

Wrestling was introduced into the Men's Intramural program this year. Referee Don Rowden watches closely as a pair of grapplers fight for a division championship.

Hiroshi Okano copped the Table Tennis title for the second straight year.

Volleyball again was one of the favorite activities in the intramural program.

Ideally, the worth-while collegian is one who serves his school in each phase of its function -- academic, spiritual, and social. Realistically, therefore, the good student becomes one who gives his every moment to his college. MSTC's servicemen are her organization men.

High standards of character, service, leadership, and scholarship are embodied in the creeds of all campus groups. Their personalities vary from enthusiastic K-Dettes to dedicated historians. Service may be the ministry of Wesleyans or Alpha Phi Omega's information center. Foremost in campus leadership, MSTC's Student Council is the mouth-piece of the student body. High scholastic attainment is required in Kappa Delta Pi and Honorary Art Club; rewarded in K-Club and Phi Delta Kappa.

ORGANIZATIONS

Best wishes for a Merry Christmas are wished upon the community through food donations at MSTC's yuletide dance.

Dave Gill, president of the sophomore class, chawks up votes in ECHO king and queen candidate elections.

Wearing some "special guy's" hat, Sonie Siefer stuffs napkins in the Tri Sigma float until dawn.

Governing student body, Council conducts elections

Fresh from a brain-storming session at the Missouri Colleges' Student Government Convention in Maryville, the elected "Seven" of the Student Council shouldered pick axes and, with a "Heigh ho, heigh ho, it's off to work we go," strode out to master the forest.

The number increased after fall class elections, when class representatives joined the ranks. Striving mightily in their best efforts, they first sponsored Parents' Day, Homecoming - featuring Bill McClanahan's band, and American Royal candidates. Student Council movies were organized. Students were thus able to attend the Kirksville movie theater at special rates.

These staunch workers carried the responsibilities of Fun Festival, including the organization of booths, presentation of talent show, coronation of royalty, and preservation of order during the crisis of a blown fuse.

Christmas was well-remembered. One day students were startled to find a Christmas tree leaning against the ticket booth in Baldwin, bravely bedecked with icicles. At least one thing was determined -- there is no electric outlet in Baldwin Hall.

At the Christmas dance, students arrived bearing gifts -- one can of food, to be collected by the Salvation Army. 1500 cans were donated. Les Elgart provided the dance music.

During TWIRP week, girls knew that "they were requested to pay" and rose to the situation. At the Council-sponsored dance, each girl paid one-half cent for each inch of man she brought.

MSTC's exemplary Student Government cooperated with other organizations as they met their philanthropic obligations. Blue Key was boosted in the publication of the Student Directory.

With spring in the air, the campus exploded in the surge of go-karts over the finish line at the Campus Town Races. Maynard Ferguson arrived to play the ECHO dance. Following spring elections, a new set of "Seven" relieved their fore-runners in executing the work of the MSTC Student Council.

Dedicated to decor

Committee plans dances

It was the biggest, tallest, greenest Christmas tree anyone had ever seen. Myriads of balls decorated its branches, reflecting the light of glittering stars . . . All this glamour and romantic effect of MSTC's holiday dance was engineered by the Student Social Committee.

An auxiliary of the Student Council, the social committee is headed by Student Council vice-president, Dean Eitel. Its members include campus artists, painters, carpenters, electricians, and general errand-boys.

Student Social Committee is as varied in purpose as in make-up. Parent's Day finds the girls serving coffee and the men playing bus-boy. Before Homecoming and ECHO dances, the committee spends long hours in conference over crepe paper colors, lighting tricks, and band-stand camouflage -- all of which change cavernous auditoriums into realistic settings.

It's tea time for parents who came to see Junior's school.

Dean of Women, Ruth Beal, invites her guests to be served.

President Ryle informs his Information Service, prior to Registration Day.

Boy Scouts do their good turn daily

Many an APO college man is yet a boy at heart. Though he may no longer scout with cap guns for imaginary lions, he is still in scouting. Affiliated with the Boy Scouts of America in grammar school, he will continue to live "physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight."

The collegiate level of Boy Scouting is Alpha Phi Omega, a service fraternity composed of former B.S. A.'s from Cub to Eagle.

Their services, having proved invaluable to administration, faculty, and students, have become traditional. Each year the proceeds of the APO Ugly Man Dance are donated to CARE.

Registration Day finds the men in blue arm-bands serving at the Information Desk.

Preserving the brotherhood of scouting, APO members also work with the Boy Scouts of the community, chaperoning camping trips, setting up programs, and assisting with troops.

Key men keep busy

Blue Key National Honor Fraternity was founded in 1924 on the University of Florida campus. Today, Blue Key has 120 chapters, with a total membership approaching 40,000. Its primary goal is to recognize outstanding student leaders, and in so doing, join them into a single leadership organization.

Working hand in hand with the administration, the student body, and the community, MSTC's chapter performs such services as publication of student directory and organization of homecoming parade.

Red becomes Cardinal Key

"Upon her blouse, she wore a bright red ribbon. She wore it in the spring-time and in the month of May. And if you asked her why she always wore it. 'Because I'm in Cardinal Key' is exactly what she'd say."

Service, scholarship, character, and leadership characterize the twenty-five college women who may sing this song. Cardinal Key is an honorary service organization whose work is carried out by MSTC's highest type coeds.

News hounds "nose" way around campus

These journalists have made front page news. In fact, they write the entire paper!

Roving reporters reveal the facts

Joe Galkowski sets type in the printer's form and "puts the INDEX to bed," a part of the news we never see.

After having guided enthusiastic reporters for years, Miss Agnes Slemons still has a nose for news herself.

Rating excellent in contests and evaluations, MSTC's school paper, THE INDEX, spans every phase of campus life. The INDEX is published weekly by newswriting classes taught by Agnes Slemons. An editor is elected each quarter. 1962-63 was a year of good news, directed by editors Tom Horace, Joe Galkowski, and Keith Dinsmore.

The INDEX includes sports coverage, news from near-by colleges, book reviews and editorials, club and fraternity summaries, and headline happenings of the week.

Kappa Delta Pi demands high scholarship

"But, Joe, it's right here in black and white!" Dr. Knobbs explains the facts in down-to-earth terms to Joe Farnsworth.

A most coveted honor at MSTC is membership in Kappa Delta Pi, professional education fraternity for high-ranking scholars.

Membership is endowed only to those students boasting a 3.0 honor-point ratio and completion of five hours of education courses.

Their primary objective being scholastic achievement, Kappa Delta Pi awards annually a twenty-five dollar scholarship to a promising sophomore student.

Dr. Pauline Knobbs, professor of social science education, sponsors the group in its every effort.

Scholars earn 3.0

Three-quarter honor roll scholars are eligible to join Alpha Phi Sigma, national honorary scholastic fraternity. High school valedictorians or salutarians are eligible to become associate members.

Members meet twice a month to hear faculty members speaking on topics ranging from biology to student teaching. An outstanding graduating member each year receives a key and certificate recognizing his services.

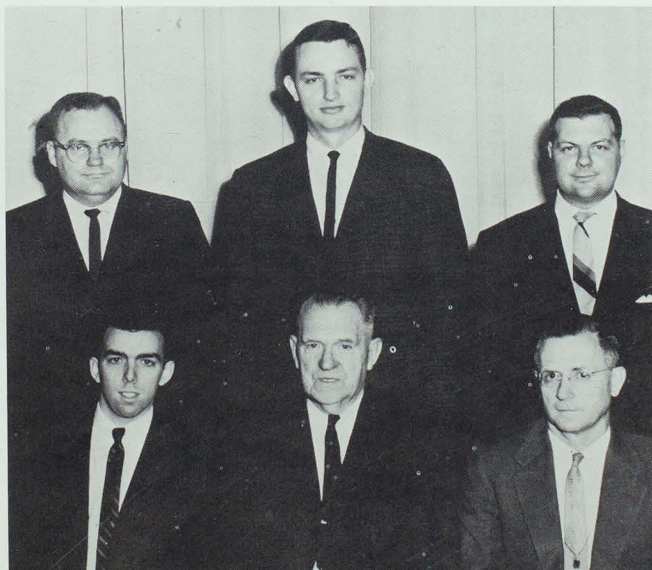

Founded on the MSTC campus in 1921, Alpha Phi Sigma exists for the recognition of high scholarship.

Graduates honor Smith

Exclusively for graduate students and teachers, Phi Delta Kappa is a national professional fraternity for men in education. MSTC's Epsilon Gamma chapter was installed in 1959, as expansion began to include all teachers colleges which offer graduate work.

Parks Smith, outstanding student in the professional college, was, this year, the first undergraduate man to reap the benefits of Phi Delta Kappa's newly initiated scholarship award.

400 teachers join Student Education Association

"Big" and "enthusiastic" are the words to describe the Student National Education Association this year. SNEA has adopted as its theme, "Spanning the new horizons." With a record membership of 480, SNEA has enjoyed such stimulating meetings as a mock job interview with Dr. Terry; Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, speaking on Kindergarten education; and Dr. Massey Goins, bringing timely remarks on mental health.

SNEA is the professional association for college and university students who are preparing for a teaching career. All SNEA members are members of their own state education association, as well as the National Education Association. Each member has the rights, privileges, and responsibilities of associate membership in these professional organizations.

Many prospective teachers in the group attend the SNEA meeting in Kansas City in November in conjunction with the Missouri State Teachers Association annual convention. State president, Jim Soderstrom, presided over the meeting, presenting the eight-point plan to delegates and explaining each of its goals.

State SNEA officers, Jim Soderstrom, president, and Bill Severson, newsletter editor, examine an INDEX announcement of forthcoming meetings.

To read with greater understanding--this is the purpose of the Oral Interpreters. Reading in both public and private programs, the members presented selections of prose, modern poetry, and old ballads at the Christmas program entitled "Take Hope . . . Take Peace . . . Take Joy . . .".

Highlighting this year's activities was the visit of Miss Hazel Easton, Professor Emeritus of Oral Interpretation from Northwestern University.

The Oral Interpreters Club provides its members with opportunities to further develop the skill they have acquired in the interpretation classes. Members must have had oral interpretation or must currently be enrolled in the class. The club was organized in 1958.

Travelling statewide, Theta takes stand

Introduce a "yes man" to a "no man", a Yankee fan to a Dodger fan, or a Democrat to a Republican, and you have a debate on your hands. In just such a spirit, members of Pi Kappa Delta debate every question from "The Single Student versus The Married Man" and "Communism versus Capitalism" to "Creamy Peanut Butter versus Crunchy."

Theta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta sponsors both Midwest Speech tournament and Regents Debate Award. Debate teams travelled throughout Missouri, Iowa, and Illinois competing with groups representing many colleges and universities.

Art clubbers show Bohemian flair

The beret-wearers and finger-painters of MSTC band together like true Bohemians in their own exclusive clique--Honorary Art Club.

Find them in back alley machine shops, and they're building a Homecoming float. Meet them at the city dump, jumping rubbish piles, and they're collecting bottles for still lifes. Watch them stare fixedly at a tree trunk on campus, and be sure they're discovering a new art form.

Honorary Art Club is a scholastic organization for only those who hold a 3.0 honor-point ratio in art courses. Its aim is to bring art majors and minors closer together in mutual appreciation of their field, and to stimulate recognition, admiration, and enjoyment of beauty in everyday experiences.

Pre-lawyers meet members of bar

Without powdered wigs or black robes, Pre-Law Club students adhere to the bar in every case. Their legal interests led them, this year, to Missouri's mock legislature, which was held at the Capital, and the University's kangaroo court in Columbia.

Every phase of the profession, from law schools to ethics, is covered in monthly Pre-Law Club meetings. Featured are such distinguished guests as Dean Covington, Missouri University Law School; Circuit Judge Green; and prosecuting attorneys Cottey and Orcutt.

Aeolian Club members compose, conduct and vocalize in the sheer ecstasy of their favorite sound-music. These music education majors also belong to other state and national organizations.

Each year members help with the spring music festival and act as hosts at receptions following senior recitals. Attendance at Missouri Music Education Convention offers to Aeolian Club harmonious clinics and displays.

Aeolian Club is open to music majors and to those interested in music education.

Accompanied by the MSTC concert orchestra, vocalists perform Handel's "Messiah."

Orchestra complements Division of Fine Arts

Music-lovers waited expectantly in the hushed auditorium for commencement of the concert. Spontaneous applause greeted the arrival of the conductor, Mr. William Fitzsimmons. He mounted the podium and, with a down stroke of baton, launched his orchestra in the opening chords of Schumann's Symphony No. 3 in E flat major.

An excellent repertoire was rendered by MSTC's orchestra in a series of three performances this year. Programs included: "Divertimento" by Haydn, Stravinsky's "Firebird Suite," Symphony No. 5 in E minor, Opus 64, Tchaikowsky; "Overture to The Barber of Seville," "Rossini; "Royal Fireworks Suite," Handel; "Exultate Jubilate," Mozart; and Chausson Symphony Opus 20.

Soprano soloist, Barbara Kinsey, MSTC music faculty, was featured in the Mozart work; and Alfred Srnka read the poems of Ogden Nash accompanied by the orchestra with Saint-Saens' "Le Carnaval Des Animaux." Piano soloists were LaVonne Tartar and Fred Krueger.

Director, Stephen Hobson, points out intricate details of interpretation to "Messiah" musicians.

NEMO Singers

Northeast Missouri singers have become known in the entire middlewest as MSTC's NEMOS. This choral group of talented music majors and enthusiasts performs on tour throughout Missouri, Iowa, and Illinois.

Conductor, Stephen Hobson, teaches NEMOS class, collects concert repertoire, and rehearses the vocalists.

Arrival of the New Year found Missouri State Teachers College's concert band playing the "January February March" by Don Gillis. Their annual tour also included such great works as "Finale" from Tchaikowski's Fourth Symphony. The band, under the direction of Tom Duden, instructor of music, traveled throughout Missouri, Iowa, and Illinois playing in schools and civic auditoriums.

Marching band enlivened city streets and football field with precision march routines in the fall. Their jazz rendition of "St. Louis Blues," complete with choreography, will long be remembered.

Wind ensemble concerts, distinguished from concert and marching bands, were as well received.

Executives take break

Pi Omega Pi, the national honorary undergraduate fraternity in Business Education, was founded on this campus by Dr. Paul O. Selby in 1923. Since the founding of Alpha Chapter, 120 chapters have been organized in colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Alpha Chapter has initiated 763 (22 this year) of the 25,000 members of Pi Omega Pi. Membership is open to future Business teachers maintaining an "S" average. The 18th Biennial Delegate Convention was held in Chicago in December.

Maps Lure Mercators

The Mercator Club, MSTC's first geography club was formed this fall under the joint efforts of Dr. Walter A. Browne and John Howard, instructors of geography.

The object of this organization is to foster geographic education and to increase the effectiveness of teaching geography; to keep in touch with state and national programs; assist those persons interested in the improvement of geographic teaching; and to promote standards of teacher training.

Historical Society has the distinguished reputation of being the oldest organization on campus. Founded November, 1906, it has, since that time, provided fellowship for those who share a common interest in history.

Its purpose is to provide each member with stimulative, informative material designed to supplement his knowledge of history through programs featuring speakers, pertinent films and panel discussions. The Society also has an annual excursion to a location of historical interest which is both educational and enjoyable for all concerned.

The Historical Society welcomes any collegian or faculty member who is interested in history and desires to be associated with others who share his interest.

Home is where the hearts of Colhecon Club's college women lie. Their every endeavor as a club pertains to the many facets of home-making; including the conducting of teas, parties, and fashion shows.

The year's activities began with a get-acquainted picnic at which all home-making majors were invited to join Colhecon. In March a luncheon was served to high school Home Economics teachers who visited MSTC for the Northeast Missouri Teachers meeting.

Colorful K-Dettes cavort; perform on stage, field, court

"Five-foot two, eyes of blue,
Oh! What those K-Dettes can do!"

Any explanation of what those K-Dettes can do is sure to be the understatement of the age. Excluding all the charm, grace, poise, good looks, and skill of professional dancers, MSTC's representative dance team performs on numerous occasions.

Costumed in everything from the purple and white colors of Teachers College to fringed and sequined satin chemises characteristic of the "roaring 20's," K-Dettes kick, pivot, twirl, and leap. At football and basketball game half-times, these twenty-one coeds perform chorus line routines in time to pep songs rendered by the marching band.

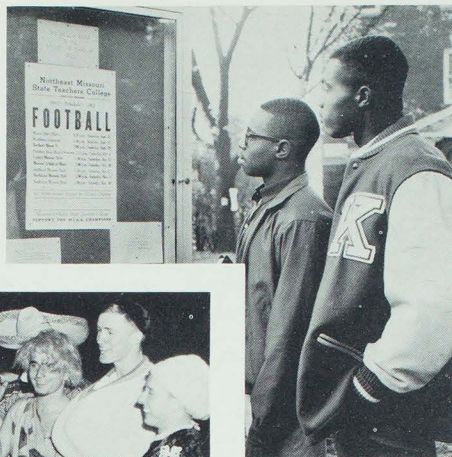

For a special demonstration in impressionistic modern dance, the K-Dettes donned green and brown cheesecloth to pose as trees and bushes.

Their ultimate effort, a tremendous success, was the freshman assembly presented in Spring. Every phase of the dance was illustrated through choreograph in this entertaining and well-executed concert.

Mr. Alfred Srnka, instructor in freshman speech, sponsors the K-Dettes and composes their routines. An experienced dancer and performer himself, Mr. Srnka gives his girls superb interpretation, and transfers to them his own appreciation for dancing as an art.

Scientists find formula

Science Hall, the country-club of MSTC, is the retreat of Sigma Zeta. Key-holders carry a treasured key-2.8 honor point ratio in Science Hall.

National honorary science society, Sigma Zeta, strives to foster the attainment of knowledge of the sciences and to recognize high scholarship among MSTC's aspiring scientists.

A program is presented at each meeting by a member of the science faculty. The group participates in the annual fair of the Missouri Academy of Science.

Science and mathematics majors who maintain high scholarship in their field of study are eligible for membership.

Answering the nation-wide demand for trained, registered nurses, MSTC last year established nurses training in its curriculum. As well as the original class which returned this year to continue their work, a number of freshman girls chose to major in nursing.

On Kirk Building's third floor a light shines at 2:00 a.m. The night watchman doesn't investigate, however. He knows a book is being written and illustrated in that room. It is an autobiography of the students at MSTC, entitled ECHO.

The publication of the 1962-63 Teachers College yearbook was piloted by ECHO editor, Dale Rankin, and skillfully steered and advanced by Helen Babbitt, Instructor in Art and yearbook staff sponsor.

School photographers, John Kenny and Dale Warder, worked with Kansas City photographer, Glenn Rider, to compose the ECHO's pictograph.

Skipping rope on the playground, reading about Spot and Puff in the first grade primer, bringing new dolls to "Show and tell time." . . . primary school teachers relive their childhood in a million different ways. Because of their talents at recalling the joys of youth, elementary education majors graduate "magna cum laud."

Among the most talented are those holding membership in the MSTC Association for Childhood Education. Members include all elementary education majors interested in the problems related to childhood education.

In an effort to better reminisce, A.C.E. students, this year formed a special projects committee. The purpose of this committee is to observe children in Kirksville grade schools, thereby promoting improved communication between the future teacher and the child. Benefits of the special projects committee reached from A.C.E. members into school, home, and community.

As much a part of college life as academics is the spiritual side of the student. Religious education and development is the major work of United Campus Christian Fellowship.

Seminars on communism, courtship, and marriage enlightened collegians at the U.C.C.F. youth center. Interspersing pleasure with business, the group sold candy, held a pizza supper, and went Christmas caroling.

Present-day problems, as they relate to Christianity, are evaluated and discussed by United Presbyterian Youth under the leadership of Dr. Lewis Hutton and Dr. C. V. Huenemann.

Detailed Bible study is also part of the curriculum of U.P.Y., an auxiliary of MSTC, dealing with religion in the lives of prospective teachers.

Wesley buys center; home to Methodists

Wesley Foundation members returned this fall to find that a student center had been acquired. The center is located behind Science Hall.

Housing classes conducted by the Missouri School of Religion, the center provides a meeting hall for worship and fellowship. Wesley hopes, in the future, to construct a building to serve the student in helping to develop his religious, educational, and social life.

Wesley Foundation is led by campus minister David Schadt. Meetings include worship services followed by social activities, discussion groups, or programs on significant religious and education topics.

Wesley has its lighter side, as well, providing fellowship with Homecoming float building, hay-riding, pancake eating, and camping at state-wide retreats to the Ozarks.

"Operation Action" opuro B.S.U.

Faithful adherents to the Baptist doctrine, members of Baptist Student Union strive to combine their church work with studies.

Spanning the activities of Baptist Student Union this year, members recall the championship volley-ball game, Christmas party, International dinner, and September chickenque. Others remember end-of-school field day, sweetheart banquet, and installation dinner.

Reverend Bill Lawson, Houston, Texas visited

Campus during Fall Quarter, preaching, teaching, and talking with collegians about their faith. Through this week, called "Operation Action," students were challenged to "Serve the Present Age" in every possible way.

Jo Ann McMurry, one of B.S.U.'s most ardent workers was appointed to serve this summer in Lagos, Nigeria, West Africa, doing Baptist missionary work.

Each fall approximately 200 men and women seek the Greek way of college life. Most of these 200 students will find Greek life satisfactory. However some will find they can't get along with the "brethren."

Before becoming a Greek "active" the rushee is destined for several weeks of pledge season. During this time the pledge should grasp a four-fold purpose in this way of life. Intellectual stimulation, physical development, better social life and scholarship improvement are the apex of goals for which the "brothers" strive.

Last but not least is the establishment of life-long friends through common interests and a basis of cooperation with others.

Service, scholarship, and activity are three of the goals for which Delta Zeta strives.

After two successful rush parties, the Garden, the Delta's pledged their quota "Hawaiian Luau" and the Delta Rose of twenty girls. Sondra Cool has returned to MSTC after a year as foreign exchange student to Germany.

Judy Hoover was elected President of Pi Omega Pi and Sally Jo Roberts was attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Sharon Adams and Sondra Cool were chosen to Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities.

Highlights of the year's activities were celebration of the 70th Anniversary with a banquet at Bonfoey Inn, visits to the home for the aged as a philanthropic project, and winning first prize in beauty with their Homecoming float "Swing to Victory."

Sigma Kappa Sorority pledged twenty-three girls at the close of fall rush. Their two rush parties were "The South Seas" and Sigma Kappa's annual Pearl Party.

Emily Lowe, president of Delta Theta Chapter, attended the national convention held in Washington, D. C. in August. Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith, senator from Maine, was featured speaker at the convention.

Pat Carney, sophomore, and Janice Simler, senior, were chosen as Echo

Queen candidates representing their respective classes.

Homecoming found Sigma Kappa working closely with Alpha Kappa Lambda Fraternity to build their float, "It's In the Pot" . . . a third place winner in the spirit division.

The sorority's motto, "One Heart, One Way" unites Sigma Kappa members throughout the nation as well as on the MSTC campus.

Sigma Sigma Sigma played hostess to their national executive secretary, Mrs. Thomas Jones, who made her triennial visit this fall. Teas, special meetings, and a banquet were held in her honor.

A Parisian fashion show and Polynesian Mai-Kai Party highlighted sorority rush for Sigma Sigma Sigma, at the close of which they pledged twenty-two girls.

In a Christmas spirit of giving, Tri-Sigma girls delivered baskets of food to needy families and sang Christmas carols.

Sandi Christman was crowned Fun Festival Queen in a joyful moment for Sigma Sigma Sigma. Becky Bigsby returned from Germany after being a foreign exchange student for one year. Becky was also elected secretary of Student Council and chosen for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Spring formal and Founder's Day were among the most memorable events of spring quarter for Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Panhellenic Council Governs Sorority Rush

"Don't worry gentlemen your money will be well spent," explain Panhellenic representatives Brenda Wetter and Merry Kay Forrest.

Panhellenic Council is composed of three members from each of the four national sororities on campus. Under the leadership of its president, Susie Hanna, the council works to foster a spirit of co-operation and mutual respect among its member groups.

Each year the council awards a scholarship to a foreign girl. This scholarship fund is made possible by the sale of theater tickets and MSTC stickers in Baldwin Hall.

Panhellenic Council also works in co-operation with the Interfraternity Council in sponsoring a Greek Week on campus, helps with the registration of guests for Senior Day, Parents' Day, and serves at the President's Reception.

Seated: Dr. Kohlenberg, sponsor; B. Gibbs, sec.; E. Kelly, pres.; J. Thompson, vice-pres.; J. Stevenson, treas.; J. Owen. Standing: D. Hall; M. Greiwe; D. Morawitz; G. Wishmeyer; D. Buhr; M. McGowan; R. Lehmann.

IFC correlates fraternity activities

A prospective pledge signs up for rush

The Interfraternity Council is composed of three members from each fraternity plus its sponsor, Dr. Gilbert Kohlenberg. These men act as arbitrators when disputes arise between fraternities.

The Interfraternity Council sponsors an annual spring banquet at which the President's Scholarship cup is presented to the fraternity having the highest honor point ratio.

The IFC rules the fraternities in their rush functions. More students signed up for rush this year than ever before.

At the close of pledge season twenty-three men were initiated in Xi chapter.

Among their social functions was the AKL Senior Banquet and the Spring formal. The annual Senior Banquet was held this year in commemoration of the 10th year of Xi chapter on the KSTC campus.

Xi chapter was very fortunate in obtaining Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gross for new chapter sponsors. Dr. Gross is a professor of Organic Chemistry at MSTC and a member of Theta Xi Fraternity at Ohio State University.

This year Phi Sigma Epsilon secured the two highest undergraduate awards: those of scholarship and chapter efficiency.

Bob Gibbs, Gamma's chapter president was elected president of Blue Key and Jack Ward was elected president of Student Council in spring elections, while Bob Barklage was elected vice-president of the senior class. Gamma won first place for over-all outstanding Homecoming float competition. Phi Sigma Epsilon won their third all-sports trophy in intramurals. The Phi Sigs contributed to community activities by donating blood to the Red Cross Bloodmobile. Phi Sigma Epsilon rush season was highlighted by the Apache Dance. Twenty-nine men chose to pledge PSE.

The President's Cup, Regional Scholarship, and National Scholarship trophies were awarded to Phi Sigma Epsilon.

TKE'S HOLD FIRST RUSH SEASON

Iota Gamma Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon opened its second year on the MSTC campus by welcoming back thirty-five men. Their rush season was highlighted by the first annual Trojan Dance and the pledging of thirty-six men.

Along with rush season, another primary objective was the securing of a new house. Through the combined efforts of the administration and the members of Iota Gamma chapter, the house at 415 East Pierce became their new house. The TKEs contributed to the community by cleaning and polishing street lights, parking meters and stop signs in the city.

High on the list of memorable experiences of each student who comes to MSTC stand the dedicated men and women who daily guide his educational development.

These interpreters labor long and hard to make the vast body of higher human knowledge live, breathe, and have meaningful being.

As graduates fondly turn in this book to the likenesses of teachers who first expressed their enthusiasm for teaching, may the memories thus stirred renew their dedication.

FACULTY

Officers of Administration

ROBERT L. MCKINNEY
(on Military Leave)
Assistant to the Office of the President
A.B.

This office is responsible for coordinating the college-wide publicity program of the college along with the supervision of the printing of all official publications. It also acts as a clearing house for speaker and programs furnished by the college. The assistant represents the President of the College when special assignments are delegated.

CHARLES J. ELAM
Division of Admissions
B.S., B.S. in Education, A.M.

The Office of Admissions assists in the integration and supervision of publicity and informative publications used to promote public knowledge about MSTC, its philosophy of education and its long-range plans to advance the College's total program. New and prospective students receive information about the College courses, costs, room and board, or other facts pertinent to its services and facilities so expertly distributed by this office.

ORVILLE E. BOWERS
Registrar
A.B., B.S. in Education, A.M.

One of the largest tasks on campus is faced by Mr. Bowers, Registrar, as he and his staff accurately keep academic records and preserve the integrity of the academic credit of the college. Through long experience in the past of Registrar, Mr. Bowers efficiently and skillfully carries out the difficult problems of evaluating credits, recording and reporting grades, furnishing of transcripts as well as maintaining a cumulative permanent record of all students enrolled in the college. The initiation of new enrollment forms may be charged to this Division.

ELI F. MITTLER
Division of Extension Service
Associate Professor of Education
 B.S. in Education, M.Ed., Ed.D.

Expanding and extending the services of the College becomes the responsibility of the Division of Extension Service under the proficient guidance of Dr. Mittler. A composite of bureaus; namely, Bureau of Placements, Bureau of Correspondence and Extension Teaching, Bureau of High School Educational Activities, and the Bureau of Audio-Visual Education and Program Service, each administered by a Director - co-ordinate to meet the concepts, standards, needs and interests in the area of high education.

ROBERT M. WRIGHT
Division of Student Personnel Service
Professor of Guidance
 B.S. in Education, M.S., Ed.D.

A busy man on campus is Dr. Robert M. Wright, who supervises daily in the Division of Student Personnel in the field of advisement for immediate and personal problems. Freshman aptitude tests are conducted by this Division, as well as professional aptitude and vocational guidance tests. This division is responsible for co-ordinating both the college-wide program of testing, counseling, and the program of guidance of the student's occupational, educational, or personality adjustment. In every way possible, Dr. Wright works toward the betterment of the student, and if there is a problem to be solved, there are many directions in which the student may turn for aid in the Personnel Office.

PETE NICOLETTI
Division of Business Service
 B.S. in Education, A.M.

For a number of years, Mr. Pete Nicoletti has capably filled the position of business manager of the college. He has numerous duties, such as purchasing agent for the college, general supervisor of the comptroller, stenographic office, physical property of the college, college bookstore, telephone exchange and similar auxiliary enterprises, and director of student employment. This last duty perhaps brings Mr. Nicoletti in closest contact with the student body, for he hires the student help necessary to the successful operation of a school of this size.

MSTC administrators, Dean Rieger and President Ryle share a tall tale with the Klins over a cup of punch.

DEAN A. ROSEBERY
Professor of General Science
Division of Science and Mathematics
B.S. in Education, Ph.D.

DOROTHY PEARSON
Associate Professor of Foods and Nutrition
Division of Home Economics

When the high school senior comes to college as a freshman, he views college with all the optimism of a young adult. As a sophomore, he will make such definite decisions as establishing a major field of study and contributing soundly to his school. On becoming a junior, the college man faces the challenges of a key figure on campus. He leads his organizations and calls his professors friend.

Senior year entails serious study, solemn discussions, and the shaping of sound philosophies. Upon graduation, the senior emerges as a teacher, staid in background, sincere in principle, and self-confident in his capabilities. He has given of himself in each class in MSTC and has received in return heritage of a lifetime.

CLASSES

"To love knowledge is to gain wisdom." This is a growing tradition to the graduate students, who, at the end of four years, return to the campus in the sole pursuit of professional education leading to a Master of Arts degree.

Teacher education seeks the student who has an understanding of that which he wishes to teach along with an appreciation for the organization of knowledge in its proper relationships.

A graduate must take a pre-admissions test and/or possess an honor point ratio of at least 2.6 on a 4 point system.

ROW ONE: Flora Apalesok, Councilwoman, Rosalyn Nakamura, secretary. ROW TWO: Ben Averbuch, pres., Ralph E. Gentry, Vice-pres.

GRIM HALL DORM COUNCIL: Seated: Mrs. Fisher, housemother; Viola Huebner, president; Juliet Smith, assistant housemother. Standing: Sandra McCarty, treasurer; Cheryl Scoggin, secretary.

BLANTON & NASON COUNCIL: N. Cragg, Nason housemother; M. Daily, president; W. Payne, Blanton housemother. Standing: P. Carney, secretary; S. Epperson, vice-president; M. Clifton, treasurer.

Mother of 300 college men, Mrs. Holzmeier experiences the joys and sorrows of twice as many parents.

Dorm administrators advise and consent

In a home, perhaps "Father knows best," but when home becomes a college dormitory, it's the dorm council that rules the roost. Dormitory councils, elected at large by the residents of each hall, make house rules and discipline the family's "problem children."

Most pleasant among their duties are the parties and other festive occasions sponsored by dormitories. Council secretaries collect dues, vice-presidents appoint committees, presidents take the helm, and a party is underway. The dorm council is in action.

BREWER COUNCIL: Seated: C. Williams, housemother; K. Christensen, president; F. Apalisok, assistant housemother. Standing: S. Rule, treasurer; H. Rickard, vice-president; L. Hammons, secretary.

Class Officers

Seated: G. Robinson, treasurer; D. Gill, president; L. Upchurch, council-woman. Standing: J. Roberts, vice-president; J. McCarthy, council-man; C. Mossbarger, secretary.

Maynard Ferguson Band plays for Echo Dance

Following a precedent of previous years, one Echo King and Queen is chosen from each undergraduate class. Final selection of the King and Queen is made from photographs submitted to the Orchestra leader engaged to play for the Annual spring Echo Formal.

The chosen favorites received their crowns to the music of Maynard Ferguson and his well known band.

Dr. Owen displays his splendid entomology collection.

Since nothing can bring back the hour of splendour in the grass,
of glory in the flower,
We four will definitely cut class this very hour.
